

Senior Pastor Message

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for being a part of our journey as Generocity Church. Administration is one of those areas that at times can be frustrating and yet is so incredibly necessary. I am so thankful for the people on our team that God has gifted in the leadership area of administration, who continue to underpin everything we do. Without such incredible leaders surrounding us, we would not be able to be the church that God has entrusted into our care.

It is our heart to do all we do with a spirit of excellence, being above reproach in matters of governance, safety, honesty and integrity. Along with this, we want to ensure that we are stewarding well all that God has entrusted to us. In order to do this, we depend on each of you.

We do not expect that everyone would be gifted in administration, however God has surrounded us with incredible people who have strengths and Spiritual gifts in this area in order to help us to develop this and hold fast to a spirit of excellence in all we do. As such, we have created this handbook as a tool to help you lead within your local campus. We hope this will bring clarity around the administrative expectations at a local level as well as the knowledge and tools to complete these tasks.

Whilst a lot of the content in this handbook is practical, there is an incredible spiritual element to administration, revealing character and growing our faith. We must never leave God out of anything we do, even seemingly the most practical of things, God is so interested in our response and our total reliance on Him.

“So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.” | 1
Corinthians 10:31 (NIV)
